

Integrated Care Forum Program

Wednesday 16th September 2015

1500-1700

Auditorium, Thomas & Rachel Moore Education Centre, Liverpool Hospital

Agenda	Speaker
Introduction Our vision and commitment to integrated care	Ms Amanda Larkin SWSLHD CE Mr Rene Pennock, SWSPHN CEO
The Local Context Progress made so far in South Western Sydney	Dr Alan McDougall, SWSLHD Clinical Stream Director Complex Care & Internal Medicine Conjoint Snr Lecturer, UWS Clinical School Joint Diabetes planning as a model for the future?
Keynote Speaker: An international perspective on integrated care	Prof. David Simmons, Prof. Medicine & Head of Endocrinology, Campbelltown Hospital Professor of Medicine, School of Medicine, UWS International models in diabetes integrated care: learnings for South Western Sydney
Scenario Presentations: Integrated care across differing healthcare settings	Dr Michael Tam, Staff Specialist, General Practice Unit, SWSLHD Conjoint Snr Lecturer, UNSW Clinical Editor, South Western Sydney Health Pathways Health Pathways as a tool for integrating care for patients – experiences and reflections Mr Nathan Schlesinger, Price Waterhouse Coopers The leading edge of international practice, ‘runs on the board’ overseas
Q&A Session Building awareness, engagement & strategy to implement integrated care in South Western Sydney	Facilitator: Dr Anett Wegerhoff, GP Camden SWSPHN Board Member Chair SWSLHD and SWSPHN Integrated Health Committee Panel: Prof David Simmons, Mr Rene Pennock, Dr Alan McDougall, Mr Nathan Schlesinger
Session Close Summary of forum & next steps	Dr Anett Wegerhoff Dr Alan McDougall Future engagement opportunities